

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO LAW REVIEW

VOLUME 17

AUTUMN 1949

NUMBER 1

EDITORIAL BOARD

Managing Editors

1949

JAMES J. McCLURE, JR., Editor-in-Chief
WILLIAM S. BOYLSTON HARRY PRATTER
THEODORE W. DELOOZE ROBERT L. RANDALL
ABRAHAM KRASH MILTON L. RAY

1949-50

C. RICHARD WALKER, Editor-in-Chief
ARNOLD M. FLAMM EDWIN H. GOLDBERGER
NORMAN GEIS JEROME W. SANDWEISS

Associate Editors

MILDRED J. GIESE GEORGE W. MCBROOM
RAYMOND GOETZ RICHARD H. PRINS
MARVIN GREEN FREDERICK MAX SCHUETTE
MILES JAFFE HENRY L. STERN
VIRGINIA A. LEARY SHERWIN J. STONE

BYRON T. HAWKINS, Business Editor
ROBERT G. CRONSON, Associate

E. W. PUTTKAMMER, Faculty Adviser

NOTES

CONSTRUCTION OF INTENT IN LIMITATIONS TO GRANTOR'S HEIRS

A transferor of property, wishing to anticipate the possible failure of a limitation because his beneficiaries may die prior to becoming entitled to their interests, may often designate his own heirs or those of a grantee as his ultimate beneficiaries. "Heirs" is a particularly suitable term for this ultimate limitation be-